

Project Updates:

The Annual Lions Christmas party was well attended by everyone. Reports are that all the kids enjoyed the presents and the pizza, and Santa was not half bad either. Thanks to everyone involved.

The train float looked fantastic!! Great job everyone. We are looking to put it in more parades next year, so keep your calendar open.

The next park meeting will be coming soon—speak to Lion Bob Today's Giggles....

Are you sick of making the same resolutions year after year and yet you never keep them?

Here are some resolutions that you can actually accomplish!

10. Read less.
9. I want to gain weight. Put on at least 30 pounds.
8. Stop exercising. Waste of time.
7. Watch more TV. I've been missing some good stuff.
6. Procrastinate more.
5. Drink. Drink some more.
4. Start being superstitious.
3. Spend more time at work.
2. Stop bringing lunch from home: I should eat out more.

and last but not least...

1. Take up a new habit: maybe smoking!

Important Dates:

January 17th—Zone Meeting in Mount Forest

The Train.....

Some words from our President.....

I hope all the Lions family had a happy holiday season and are eager to begin a new year.

The prognoses for this years activities appear to be busy (surprises!!) but that's what we want. We should be having a park meeting soon. Are next executive meeting will be Tuesday January 15th at 7pm at my house. Our meeting on January 8th we will be hosting our zone chair Shawn McLeod. See you all at the Lions Den.

Lion President Ron

LCIF Ranked Best NGO Worldwide

In a special report released Thursday, July 5, 2007, Lions Clubs International Foundation (LCIF) ranked best among non-governmental organizations (NGOs) worldwide. From 34 global organizations, LCIF came in first for its execution of programs, demonstrated accountability, communications internally and externally, program adaptability to the surrounding community, and understanding the goals of its corporate supporters.

The ratings were compiled by the Financial Times in association with the Dalberg Global Development Advisors and the United Nations Global Compact. The assessment was published in the Financial Times' Corporate Citizenship and Philanthropy special report and highlights companies' growing interest in long-term partnerships to tackle an expanding range of social issues. The full story can be at <http://www.ft.com/cms/s/e230ea0e-294c-11dc-a530-000b5df10621.html> and story about the list can be viewed at www.FT.com/cms/s/64b86094-2a90-11dc-9208-000b5df10621.html. The list was also reproduced in the Chronicle of Philanthropy. The full list can be viewed at http://media.ft.com/cms/e462102e-2b03-11dc-85f9-000b5df10621.dwp_uuid=c1927432-1f9e-11dc-ac86-000b5df10621.pdf.

A number of other well-known NGOs were included on the list. The list was released at a meeting of executives of NGOs and the UN in Geneva, Switzerland.

Lions Clubs International Foundation is Lions helping Lions serve the world. Donations provide funding in the form of grants to financially assist Lions districts with large-scale humanitarian projects that are too extensive for Lions to finance on their own. The Foundation aids Lions in making a greater impact in their local communities, as well as around the world. Through LCIF, Lions ease pain and suffering and bring healing and hope to people worldwide. For more information, visit www.lcif.org.
